* Federal election campaign finance laws prohibit Ameriprise Financial, Inc. and other corporations from making direct contributions to candidates for federal political office. Our Statement of Principles Governing Corporate Political Spending prohibits us from using corporate funds specifically for the purpose of a public communication that expressly advocates the election or defeat of a clearly identified candidate for federal, state, or local political office. We've posted our Statement of Principles on our public website.

 Ameriprise Financial, Inc. has established a political action committee, the Ameriprise Financial, Inc. Political Action Committee, or AmeriprisePAC. AmeriprisePAC is registered with the Federal Election Commission. AmeriprisePAC does not use corporate funds to make political contributions. AmeriprisePAC makes contributions solely with funds voluntarily contributed to it by our officers and employees or other eligible persons. You can view more information about AmeriprisePAC and the contributions it has made by visiting the Federal Election Commission's Website at www.fec.gov and clicking on Campaign finance data.
